

Vespers for Tuesday in Holy Week

Opening Sentence

Worship the Lord in the beauty of his holiness; let the whole earth tremble before him. Psalms 96:9

The Invitatory and Psalter

V: O God, make speed to save us.

R: O Lord, make haste to help us.

Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit: *
as it was in the beginning, is now, and will be for ever. Amen.

O Gracious Light Phos hilaron

O gracious Light,
pure brightness of the everliving Father in heaven,
O Jesus Christ, holy and blessed!

Now as we come to the setting of the sun,
and our eyes behold the vesper light,
we sing your praises, O God: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

You are worthy at all times to be praised by happy voices,
O Son of God, O Giver of life,
and to be glorified through all the worlds.

The Psalm or Psalms Appointed

Psalm 80 Qui regis Israel

The message about the cross is foolishness to those who are perishing, but to us who are being saved it is the power of God.

¹ Hear, O Shepherd of Israel, leading Joseph like a flock; *
shine forth, you that are enthroned upon the cherubim.

² In the presence of Ephraim, Benjamin, and Manasseh, *
stir up your strength and come to help us.

³ Restore us, O God of hosts; *
show the light of your countenance, and we shall be saved.

⁴ O LORD God of hosts, *
how long will you be angered despite the prayers of your people?

⁵ You have fed them with the bread of tears; *
you have given them bowls of tears to drink.

⁶ You have made us the derision of our neighbors, *
and our enemies laugh us to scorn.

⁷ Restore us, O God of hosts; *
show the light of your countenance, and we shall be saved.

Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit: *
as it was in the beginning, is now, and will be for ever. Amen.

We proclaim Christ crucified, the power of God and the wisdom of God.

⁸ You have brought a vine out of Egypt; *
you cast out the nations and planted it.
⁹ You prepared the ground for it; *
it took root and filled the land.
¹⁰ The mountains were covered by its shadow *
and the towering cedar trees by its boughs.
¹¹ You stretched out its tendrils to the Sea *
and its branches to the River.
¹² Why have you broken down its wall, *
so that all who pass by pluck off its grapes?
¹³ The wild boar of the forest has ravaged it, *
and the beasts of the field have grazed upon it.
¹⁴ Turn now, O God of hosts, look down from heaven; behold and tend this vine; *
preserve what your right hand has planted.
¹⁵ They burn it with fire like rubbish; *
at the rebuke of your countenance let them perish.
¹⁶ Let your hand be upon the man of your right hand, *
and son of man you have made so strong for yourself.
¹⁷ And so will we never turn away from you; *
give us life, that we may call upon your Name.
¹⁸ Restore us, O LORD God of hosts; *
show the light of your countenance, and we shall be saved.

Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit: *
as it was in the beginning, is now, and will be for ever. Amen.

We proclaim Christ crucified, the power of God and the wisdom of God.

Psalm 126 In convertendo

God chose what is foolish in the world to shame the wise; God chose what is weak in the world to shame the strong.

¹ When the LORD restored the fortunes of Zion, *
then were we like those who dream.
² Then was our mouth filled with laughter, *
and our tongue with shouts of joy.
³ Then they said among the nations, *
"The LORD has done great things for them."

⁴ The LORD has done great things for us, *
and we are glad indeed.
⁵ Restore our fortunes, O LORD, *
like the watercourses of the Negev.
⁶ Those who sowed with tears *
will reap with songs of joy.
⁷ Those who go out weeping, carrying the seed, *
will come again with joy, shouldering their sheaves.

Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit: *
as it was in the beginning, is now, and will be for ever. Amen.

God chose what is foolish in the world to shame the wise; God chose what is weak in the world to shame the strong.

The Lessons

A reading from Mark 11:27-33 (NRSV)

Again they came to Jerusalem. As he was walking in the temple, the chief priests, the scribes, and the elders came to him and said, "By what authority are you doing these things? Who gave you this authority to do them?" Jesus said to them, "I will ask you one question; answer me, and I will tell you by what authority I do these things. Did the baptism of John come from heaven, or was it of human origin? Answer me." They argued with one another, "If we say, 'From heaven,' he will say, 'Why then did you not believe him?' But shall we say, 'Of human origin'?"-- they were afraid of the crowd, for all regarded John as truly a prophet. So they answered Jesus, "We do not know." And Jesus said to them, "Neither will I tell you by what authority I am doing these things."

Here ends the Reading.

The light is with you for a little longer. While you have the light, believe in the light, so that you may become children of light.

The Song of Mary Magnificat
Luke 1:46-55

My soul proclaims the greatness of the Lord,
my spirit rejoices in God my Savior; *
for he has looked with favor on his lowly servant.
From this day all generations will call me blessed: *
the Almighty has done great things for me,
and holy is his Name.
He has mercy on those who fear him *
in every generation.
He has shown the strength of his arm, *
he has scattered the proud in their conceit.
He has cast down the mighty from their thrones, *
and has lifted up the lowly.
He has filled the hungry with good things, *
and the rich he has sent away empty.
He has come to the help of his servant Israel, *

for he has remembered his promise of mercy,
The promise he made to our fathers, *
to Abraham and his children for ever.

Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit: *
as it was in the beginning, is now, and will be for ever. Amen.

The light is with you for a little longer. While you have the light, believe in the light, so that you may become children of light.

A Prayer of St. Chrysostom

Almighty God, you have given us grace at this time with one accord to make our common supplication to you; and you have promised through your well-beloved Son that when two or three are gathered together in his Name you will be in the midst of them: Fulfill now, O Lord, our desires and petitions as may be best for us; granting us in this world knowledge of your truth, and in the age to come life everlasting. Amen.

Holy Mary, Mother of God, pray for us sinners, now and at the hour of our death. Amen.

now and at the hour of our death. Amen.*
