

Vespers for Monday After Proper 29

\(Clement of Rome, Bishop, c. 100\)

Opening Sentence

Let my prayer be set forth in your sight as incense, the lifting up of my hands as the evening sacrifice. Psalm 141:2

The Invitatory and Psalter

V: O God, make speed to save us.

R: O Lord, make haste to help us.

Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit: *
as it was in the beginning, is now, and will be for ever. Amen.

Alleluia

O Gracious Light Phos hilaron

O gracious Light,
pure brightness of the everliving Father in heaven,
O Jesus Christ, holy and blessed!

Now as we come to the setting of the sun,
and our eyes behold the vesper light,
we sing your praises, O God: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

You are worthy at all times to be praised by happy voices,
O Son of God, O Giver of life,
and to be glorified through all the worlds.

The Psalm or Psalms Appointed

Psalm 2 Quare fremuerunt gentes?

I myself have set my king upon my holy hill of Zion.

¹ Why are the nations in an uproar? *

Why do the peoples mutter empty threats?

² Why do the kings of the earth rise up in revolt, and the princes plot together, * against the LORD and against his Anointed?

³ Let us break their yoke, they say; *
let us cast off their bonds from us.

⁴ He whose throne is in heaven is laughing; *
the Lord has them in derision.

⁵ Then he speaks to them in his wrath, *
and his rage fills them with terror.

⁶ I myself have set my king *
.upon my holy hill of Zion

⁷ Let me announce the decree of the LORD: *
he said to me, "You are my Son; this day have I begotten you.

⁸ Ask of me, and I will give you the nations for your inheritance * and the ends of the earth for your possession.

⁹ You shall crush them with an iron rod * and shatter them like a piece of pottery."

¹⁰ And now, you kings, be wise; *
be warned, you rulers of the earth.

¹¹ Submit to the LORD with fear, *
and with trembling bow before him;

¹² Lest he be angry and you perish; *
for his wrath is quickly kindled.

¹³ Blessed are they all *
who take refuge in him!

Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit: *
as it was in the beginning, is now, and will be for ever. Amen.

I myself have set my king upon my holy hill of Zion.

Psalm 49 Audite haec, omnes

Lay up for yourselves treasures in heaven, says the Lord.

¹ Hear this, all you peoples; hearken, all you who dwell in the world, *
you of high degree and low, rich and poor together.

² My mouth shall speak of wisdom, *
and my heart shall meditate on understanding.

³ I will incline my ear to a proverb *
and set forth my riddle upon the harp.

⁴ Why should I be afraid in evil days, *
when the wickedness of those at my heels surrounds me,

⁵ The wickedness of those who put their trust in their goods, *
and boast of their great riches?

⁶ We can never ransom ourselves, *
or deliver to God the price of our life;

⁷ For the ransom of our life is so great, *
that we should never have enough to pay it,

⁸ In order to live for ever and ever, *
and never see the grave.

Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit: *
as it was in the beginning, is now, and will be for ever. Amen.

Lay up for yourselves treasures in heaven, says the Lord.

Such is the way of those who foolishly trust in themselves, and the end of those who delight in their own words.

⁹ For we see that the wise die also; like the dull and stupid they perish * and leave their wealth to those who come after them.

¹⁰ Their graves shall be their homes for ever, their dwelling places from generation to generation, * though they call the lands after their own names.

¹¹ Even though honored, they cannot live for ever; *
they are like the beasts that perish.

¹² Such is the way of those who foolishly trust in themselves, * and the end of those who delight in their own words.

¹³ Like a flock of sheep they are destined to die; Death is their shepherd; *
they go down straightway to the grave.

¹⁴ Their form shall waste away, *
and the land of the dead shall be their home.

¹⁵ But God will ransom my life; *
he will snatch me from the grasp of death.

¹⁶ Do not be envious when some become rich, *
or when the grandeur of their house increases;

¹⁷ For they will carry nothing away at their death, *
nor will their grandeur follow them.

¹⁸ Though they thought highly of themselves while they lived, *
and were praised for their success,

¹⁹ They shall join the company of their forebears, *
who will never see the light again.

²⁰ Those who are honored, but have no understanding, *
are like the beasts that perish.

Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit: *
as it was in the beginning, is now, and will be for ever. Amen.

Such is the way of those who foolishly trust in themselves, and the end of those who delight in their own words.

The Lessons

A reading from Luke 18:15-30 (NRSV)

People were bringing even infants to him that he might touch them; and when the disciples saw it, they sternly ordered them not to do it. But Jesus called for them and said, "Let the little children come to me, and do not stop them; for it is to such as these that the kingdom of God belongs. Truly I tell you, whoever does not receive the kingdom of God as a little child will never enter it." A certain ruler asked him, "Good Teacher, what must I do to inherit eternal life?" Jesus said to him, "Why do you call me good? No one is good but God alone. You know the commandments: 'You shall not commit adultery; You shall not murder; You shall not steal; You shall not bear false witness; Honor your father and mother.'" He replied, "I have kept all these since my youth." When Jesus heard this, he said to him, "There is still one thing lacking. Sell all that you own and distribute the money to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven; then come, follow me." But when he heard this, he became sad; for he was very rich. Jesus looked at him and said, "How hard it is for those who have wealth to enter the kingdom of God! Indeed, it is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle than for someone who is rich to enter the kingdom of God." Those who heard it said, "Then who can be saved?" He replied, "What is impossible for mortals is possible for God." Then Peter said, "Look, we have left our homes and followed you." And he said to them, "Truly I tell you, there is no one who has left house or wife or brothers or parents or children, for the sake of the kingdom of God, who will not get back very much more in this age, and in the age to come eternal life."

Here ends the Reading.

God has come to the help of his servant Israel, ever mindful of his merciful promise.

The Song of Mary Magnificat

Luke 1:46-55

My soul proclaims the greatness of the Lord,
my spirit rejoices in God my Savior; *
for he has looked with favor on his lowly servant.
From this day all generations will call me blessed: *
the Almighty has done great things for me,
and holy is his Name.
He has mercy on those who fear him *
in every generation.
He has shown the strength of his arm, *
he has scattered the proud in their conceit.
He has cast down the mighty from their thrones, *
and has lifted up the lowly.
He has filled the hungry with good things, *
and the rich he has sent away empty.
He has come to the help of his servant Israel, *
for he has remembered his promise of mercy,
The promise he made to our fathers, *
to Abraham and his children for ever.

Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit: *
as it was in the beginning, is now, and will be for ever. Amen.

God has come to the help of his servant Israel, ever mindful of his merciful promise.

A Prayer of St. Chrysostom

Almighty God, you have given us grace at this time with one accord to make our common supplication to you; and you have promised through your well-beloved Son that when two or three are gathered together in his Name you will be in the midst of them: Fulfill now, O Lord, our desires and petitions as may be best for us; granting us in this world knowledge of your truth, and in the age to come life everlasting. Let us bless the Lord.
Thanks be to God.
