Alleluia

O Gracious Light Phos hilaron

O gracious Light,
pure brightness of the everliving Father in heaven,
O Jesus Christ, holy and blessed!

Now as we come to the setting of the sun,
and our eyes behold the vesper light,
we sing your praises, O God: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

You are worthy at all times to be praised by happy voices,
O Son of God, O Giver of life,
and to be glorified through all the worlds.

The Psalm or Psalms Appointed

Psalm 37: Part I Noli aemulari

Commit your way to the Lord and put your trust in him.

¹ Do not fret yourself because of evildoers; *
do not be jealous of those who do wrong.

³ Put your trust in the LORD and do good; *
dwell in the land and feed on its riches.

⁴ Take delight in the LORD, *
and he shall give you your heart's desire.

⁵ Commit your way to the LORD and put your trust in him, *
and he will bring it to pass.

⁶ He will make your righteousness as clear as the light *
and your just dealing as the noonday.

⁷ Be still before the LORD *
and wait patiently for him.

⁸ Do not fret yourself over the one who prospers, *
the one who succeeds in evil schemes.

⁹ Refrain from anger, leave rage alone; *
do not fret yourself; it leads only to evil.

¹⁰ For evildoers shall be cut off, *
but those who wait upon the LORD shall possess the land.

¹¹ In a little while the wicked shall be no more; *
you shall search out their place, but they will not be there.

¹² But the lowly shall possess the land; *
they will delight in abundance of peace.

¹³ The wicked plot against the righteous *
and gnash at them with their teeth.

¹⁴ The Lord laughs at the wicked, *
because he sees that their day will come.

to slaughter those who are upright in their ways.

¹⁶ Their sword shall go through their own heart, *
and their bow shall be broken.

¹⁷ The little that the righteous has *
is better than great riches of the wicked.

¹⁸ For the power of the wicked shall be broken, *
but the LORD upholds the righteous.

as it was in the beginning, is now, and will be for ever. Amen.

and in days of famine they shall have enough.

²¹ As for the wicked, they shall perish, *
and the enemies of the LORD, like the glory of the meadows, shall vanish; they shall vanish like smoke.

²² The wicked borrow and do not repay, *
but the righteous are generous in giving.

²³ Those who are blessed by God shall possess the land, *
but those who are cursed by him shall be destroyed.

²⁴ Our steps are directed by the LORD; *
he strengthens those in whose way he delights.

²⁵ If they stumble, they shall not fall headlong, *
for the LORD holds them by the hand.

²⁶ I have been young and now I am old, *
but never have I seen the righteous forsaken, or their children begging bread.

but the offspring of the wicked shall be destroyed.

³¹ The righteous shall possess the land *
and dwell in it for ever.

and their tongue speaks what is right.

as it was in the beginning, is now, and will be for ever. Amen.

³⁶ Wait upon the LORD and keep his way; *
he will raise you up to possess the land, and when the wicked are cut off, you will see it.

³⁷ I have seen the wicked in their arrogance, *
flourishing like a tree in full leaf.

I searched for them, but they could not be found.

for there is a future for the peaceable.

⁴⁰ Transgressors shall be destroyed, one and all; *
the future of the wicked is cut off.

he is their stronghold in time of trouble.

he will rescue them from the wicked and deliver them, because they seek refuge in him.

The Lessons

A reading from 'John 11:30-44 (NRSV)'

Now Jesus had not yet come to the village, but was still at the place where Martha had met him. The Jews who were with her in the house, consoling her, saw Mary get up quickly and go out. They followed her because they thought that she was going to the tomb to weep there. When Mary came where Jesus was and saw him, she knelt at his feet and said to him, "Lord, if you had been here, my brother would not have died." When Jesus saw her weeping, and the Jews who came with her also weeping, he was greatly disturbed in spirit and deeply moved. He said, "Where have you laid him?" They said to him, "Lord, come and see." Jesus began to weep. So the Jews said, "See how he loved him!" But some of them said, "Could not he who opened the eyes of the blind man have kept this man from dying?" Then Jesus, again greatly disturbed, came to the tomb. It was a cave, and a stone was lying against it. Jesus said, "Take away the stone." Martha, the sister of the dead man, said to him, "Lord, already there is a stench because he has been dead four days." Jesus said to her, "Did I not tell you that if you believed, you would see the glory of God?" So they took away the stone. And Jesus looked upward and said, "Father, I thank you for having heard me. I knew that you always hear me, but I have said this for the sake of the crowd standing here, so that they may believe that you sent me." When he had said this, he cried with a loud voice, "Lazarus, come out!" The dead man came out, his hands and feet bound with strips of cloth, and his face wrapped in a cloth. Jesus said to them, "Unbind him, and let him go."

Here ends the Reading.

The Song of Mary Magnificat
Luke 1:46-55

I came into the world for judgment so that those who do not see may see, and those who do see may become blind.

My soul proclaims the greatness of the Lord, my spirit rejoices in you, O God my Savior, *
for you have looked with favor on your lowly servant.

From this day all generations will call me blessed:*

you, the Almighty, have done great things for me, and holy is your name.

You have mercy on those who fear you *

from generation to generation.

You have shown strength with your arm *

and scattered the proud in their conceit,

Casting down the mighty from their thrones *

and lifting up the lowly.

You have filled the hungry with good things *

and sent the rich away empty.

You have come to the help of your servant Israel, *

for you have remembered your promise of mercy, The promise made to our forebears, *

to Abraham and his children forever

Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit: *

as it was in the beginning, is now, and will be forever. Amen.

I came into the world for judgment so that those who do not see may see, and those who do see may become blind.

Prayer of St. Chrysostom

Almighty God, you have given us grace at this time with one accord to make our common supplication to you; and you have promised through your well-beloved Son that when two or three are gathered together in his Name you will be in the midst of them: Fulfill now, O Lord, our desires and petitions as may be best for us; granting us in this world knowledge of your truth, and in the age to come life everlasting. Amen.
