(Fall Ember Thursday)

Commemoration of Philander Chase, Bishop, 1852 and Commemoration of Proper 20 The Sunday closest to September 21

Opening Sentence

I will bless the Lord who gives me counsel; my heart teaches me, night after night. I have set the Lord always before me; because he is at my right hand, I shall not fall. Psalm 16:7,8

The Invitatory

V: O God, make speed to save us.

R: O Lord, make haste to help us.

Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit: *
as it was in the beginning, is now, and will be for ever. Amen.

Alleluia

O Gracious Light Phos hilaron

O gracious Light,
pure brightness of the everliving Father in heaven,
O Jesus Christ, holy and blessed!

Now as we come to the setting of the sun,
and our eyes behold the vesper light,
we sing your praises, O God: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

You are worthy at all times to be praised by happy voices,
O Son of God, O Giver of life,
and to be glorified through all the worlds.

The Psalms Appointed

Psalm 59 Eripe me de inimicis

Protect me, O my God, from those who rise up against me.

¹ Rescue me from my enemies, O God; *
protect me from those who rise up against me.

² Rescue me from evildoers *
and save me from those who thirst for my blood.

³ See how they lie in wait for my life, how the mighty gather together against me; *
not for any offense or fault of mine, O LORD.

⁴ Not because of any guilt of mine *
they run and prepare themselves for battle.

⁵ Rouse yourself, come to my side, and see; *
for you, LORD God of hosts, are Israel's God.

⁶ Awake, and punish all the ungodly; *
show no mercy to those who are faithless and evil.

⁷ They go to and fro in the evening; *
they snarl like dogs and run about the city.

⁸ Behold, they boast with their mouths, and taunts are on their lips; *
"For who, they say, will hear us?"

⁹ But you, O LORD, you laugh at them; *
you laugh all the ungodly to scorn.

¹⁰ My eyes are fixed on you, O my Strength; *
for you, O God, are my stronghold.

¹¹ My merciful God comes to meet me; *
God will let me look in triumph on my enemies.

¹² Slay them, O God, lest my people forget; *

send them reeling by your might and put them down, O Lord our shield.

13 For the sins of their mouths, for the words of their lips, for the cursing and lies that they utter, *
let them be caught in their pride.

14 Make an end of them in your wrath; *
make an end of them, and they shall be no more.

15 Let everyone know that God rules in Jacob, *
and to the ends of the earth.

16 They go to and fro in the evening; *
they snarl like dogs and run about the city.

17 They forage for food, *
and if they are not filled, they howl.

18 For my part, I will sing of your strength; *
I will celebrate your love in the morning;

19 For you have become my stronghold, *
a refuge in the day of my trouble.

20 To you, O my Strength, will I sing; *
for you, O God, are my stronghold and my merciful God.

Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit: *
as it was in the beginning, is now, and will be for ever. Amen.

Protect me, O my God, from those who rise up against me.

Psalm 60 Deus, repulisti nos

Save us by your right hand, O God, that those who are dear to you may be delivered.

1 O God, you have cast us off and broken us; *
you have been angry; oh, take us back to you again.

2 You have shaken the earth and split it open; *
repair the cracks in it, for it totters.

3 You have made your people know hardship; *
you have given us wine that makes us stagger.

4 You have set up a banner for those who fear you, *
to be a refuge from the power of the bow.

5 Save us by your right hand and answer us, *
that those who are dear to you may be delivered.

- ⁶ God spoke from his holy place and said: *
"I will exult and parcel out Shechem; I will divide the valley of Succoth.
⁷ Gilead is mine and Manasseh is mine; *
Ephraim is my helmet and Judah my scepter.
⁸ Moab is my wash-basin, on Edom I throw down my sandal to claim it, *
and over Philistia will I shout in triumph."
⁹ Who will lead me into the strong city? *
who will bring me to Edom?
¹⁰ Have you not cast us off, O God? *
you no longer go out, O God, with our armies.
¹¹ Grant us your help against the enemy, *
for vain is the help of man.
¹² With God we will do valiant deeds, *
and he shall tread our enemies under foot.

Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit: *
as it was in the beginning, is now, and will be for ever. Amen.

Save us by your right hand, O God, that those who are dear to you may be delivered.

Psalm 123 Ad te levavi oculos meos

Our eyes look to the Lord our God, until he shows us his mercy.

- ¹ To you I lift up my eyes, *
to you enthroned in the heavens.
² As the eyes of servants look to the hand of their masters, *
and the eyes of a maid to the hand of her mistress, ³ So our eyes look to the LORD our God, *
until he show us his mercy.
⁴ Have mercy upon us, O LORD, have mercy, *
for we have had more than enough of contempt,
⁵ Too much of the scorn of the indolent rich, *
and of the derision of the proud.

Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit: *
as it was in the beginning, is now, and will be for ever. Amen.

Our eyes look to the Lord our God, until he shows us his mercy.

The Lessons

A reading from 'Luke 4:14-30 (NRSV)'

Then Jesus, filled with the power of the Spirit, returned to Galilee, and a report about him spread through all the surrounding country. He began to teach in their synagogues and was praised by everyone. When he came to Nazareth, where he had been brought up, he went to the synagogue on the sabbath day, as was his custom. He stood up to read, and the scroll of the prophet Isaiah was given to him. He unrolled the scroll and found the place where it was written: "The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because he has anointed me to bring good news to the poor. He has sent me to proclaim release to the captives and recovery of sight to the blind, to let the oppressed go free, to proclaim the year of the Lord's favor." And he rolled up the scroll, gave it back to the attendant, and sat down. The eyes of all in the synagogue were fixed on him. Then he began to say to them, "Today this scripture has been fulfilled in your hearing." All spoke well of him and were amazed at the gracious words that came from his mouth. They said, "Is not this Joseph's son?" He said to them, "Doubtless you will quote to me this proverb, 'Doctor, cure yourself!' And you will say, 'Do here also in your hometown the things that we have heard you did at Capernaum.'" And he said, "Truly I tell you, no prophet is accepted in the prophet's hometown. But the truth is, there were many widows in Israel in the time of Elijah, when the heaven was shut up three years and six months, and there was a severe famine over all the land; yet Elijah was sent to none of them except to a widow at Zarephath in Sidon. There were also many lepers in Israel in the time of the prophet Elisha, and none of them was cleansed except Naaman the Syrian." When they heard this, all in the synagogue were filled with rage. They got up, drove him out of the town, and led him to the brow of the hill on which their town was built, so that they might hurl him off the cliff. But he passed through the midst of them and went on his way.

Here ends the Reading.

The Song of Mary Magnificat Luke 1:46-55

God has fed the hungry with good things, and the rich he has sent away empty.

My soul proclaims the greatness of the Lord, my spirit rejoices in you, O God my Savior, * for you have looked with favor on your lowly servant.

From this day all generations will call me blessed:*

you, the Almighty, have done great things for me, and holy is your name.

You have mercy on those who fear you * from generation to generation.

You have shown strength with your arm *

and scattered the proud in their conceit,

Casting down the mighty from their thrones *

and lifting up the lowly.

You have filled the hungry with good things * and sent the rich away empty.

You have come to the help of your servant Israel, *

for you have remembered your promise of mercy, The promise made to our forebears, *

to Abraham and his children for ever

Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit: *

as it was in the beginning, is now, and will be for ever. Amen.

God has fed the hungry with good things, and the rich he has sent away empty.

A Prayer of St. Chrysostom

Almighty God, you have given us grace at this time with one accord to make our common supplication to you; and you have promised through your well-beloved Son that when two or three are gathered together in his Name you will be in the midst of them: Fulfill now, O Lord, our desires and petitions as may be best for us; granting us in this world knowledge of your truth, and in the age to come life everlasting. Amen.

Let us bless the Lord.

Thanks be to God.
